

Mira Contract Education

Manage tailor-made courses based on the needs of an individual client, or open-enrollment courses. Mira Contract Education helps you to form valuable ties to the business sector and supports the whole course project life cycle.

What can Mira Contract Education do for you?

Mira Contract Education helps you to manage Contract Education (both open-enrollment courses and tailor-made courses). Our product supports the course life cycle – from marketing and planning to course delivery and invoicing. After course completion you can easily continue your relation with former participants as good ambassadors and prospects.

Easy to integrate

Mira Contract Education is always integrated with Mira ERM BASE, and often integrated with Mira Alumni Relations – in particular for longer open enrollment programs such as Executive MBA. The product is also often integrated with Student Recruitment to attract new participants.

Our add-on module Mira Event Management is often added to Mira Contract Education to create successful events. efficiently manage information meetings or seminars. We also offer our add-on module Mira's Economic System Integration, providing you with a payment solution directly integrated with Mira Contract Education.

Match your organization's specific needs

Mira Contract Education is available in three different levels: Mira Express, Mira Premium, and Mira Dedicated, to match your organization's specific needs.

Mira Express is a well-packaged solution that is easy to get started and work with. The solution provides a good and easy entry to Mira, and contains the basic functionality needed to run a successful work. From Mira Express it is easy to take the next step to a more advanced solution as your needs expand.

Mira Premium is a powerful solution that offers advanced functionality and extensive opportunities to conduct a successful work. The solution is suitable for you who wish to obtain an advanced solution based on Mira's standard functionality.

Mira Dedicated is an optimal solution that provides all the functionality within Mira Express and Premium, plus tailored customizations – a maximal solution that suits you who have specific business needs.
